

NEWS & NOTES

Sympathy

Chris Keene, longtime member of Park Avenue and Armstrong Avenue, passed away on May 11. She was 95 years old. Visitation will be at Fisher Funeral Home on Sunday, May 15 from 2-4 PM. Graveside services will be Monday, May 16 at 1 PM at Cedarlawn Cemetery in Sherman.

Thank You

To all of the good people who sent a card, who brought a dish, who brought flowers, who prayed for Jane and for me, for all the stories and the hugs and encouraging words—thank you, all of you. You gave to me what Jane had given you—caring, support, and prayer. God bless you all. Stewart Bolerjack

Uncharted - Help & Hope for Parents

Parenting is tough, and no one understands that better than other parents. Are you a single parent, a new parent, or find yourself in uncharted waters? Park Avenue is pleased to present the Uncharted DMC to offer parenting strategies and hope-filled insights. The group meets weekly at 6:30 PM in the Middle School Room of the Family Life Center in stand-alone session discussions. You do not have to attend Park Avenue to attend. For more information, Contact Barry or Jennifer Chapman, 903-818-9246.

Youth Ministry

- May 15: Park Avenue Youth and Families! We are going to go watch the movie Family Camp @Cinemark @4:10. It was made by the Skit Guys who do great improv ministry.
